

WORLD'S FIRST PLATFORM FOR TRADING TOKENS EVEN BEFORE THEY GET ON EXCHANGES

Problems

- Investors' money (in Crypto Tokens) is locked due to extensive delays before exchange listing, preventing investors from trading their new ICO tokens.
- No reliable safeguards for users' funds because of centralized nature of exchanges and decentralized exchanges are slow, risking execution outcomes.
- Many investors, even after being whitelisted for an ICO, don't get a chance to participate in the crowd sale.

Solution

- BDAQ, world's first pre-listing token liquidation, decentralized platform, for ERC20 token buying and selling, anytime.
- Smart investors matching and instant messaging between Ethereum addresses.
- Master Node – BDAQ ownership and revenue sharing opportunity for crypto investors.

Market potential

- Crypto currencies market will be $1 trillion soon – in the last 14 months $5 billion invested in ICO tokens were locked-in for up to 90 days or more.

Token Model

- For the first time in the history of crypto investing, investors can sell their tokens immediately after receiving them without having to wait for the tokens to be listed on the Exchanges. This will attract millions of ERC20 token owners to liquidate their token for Ethereum or Bdaq. Liquidation in exchange of Bdaq will give 20% additional value than liquidation for Ethereum. Potential value will grow exponentially mainly because there is limited supply (all unsold tokens will be burnt at the end of the ICO) and Bdaq is the first and only place where instant token liquidity is available for all ICO investors.

Every transaction on the Bdaq platform will attract a fee paid in Ethereum (or Bdaq) and this will potentially result in an exponential growth in the value of Bdaq token. Bdaq Master Node will also present a huge opportunity to Crypto investors and will add to the token value.
